

100&Cooper

Defining the Future of Higher Ed

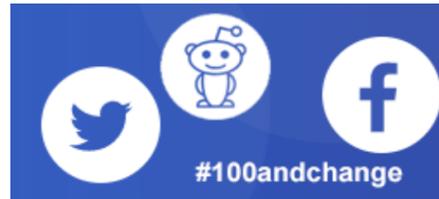

100&Change

A competition for a $100 million grant to fund a single proposal that promises real and measurable progress in solving a critical problem of our time.

Read our strategy and the current status of our work ›

Four Finalists Named in Global Competition for $100 Million Grant ›

Finalist Fridays: 100&Change Finalists Answer Your Questions ›

Revealing the Top 200 Proposals ›

Critical Problem:
Higher Education in the United States

100&Cooper: 2 Semester Sequence

Spring 2018: The Ray Brown Seminar

Professor: Nicholas Tampio

Explores, in the American context, the purpose of higher education, the history of higher education, kinds of institutions of higher education, the present regulatory environment, and new policy ideas under consideration to regulate higher education.

Fall 2018: 100&Cooper

Professor: Andrew Sparks, Peter Buckley

The students of The Cooper Union intend to develop a proposal addressing the downfalls of higher education in the United States. If afforded the grant, the Cooper Union will function as a vehicle to execute their proposal, and the school will institutionalize the student body's idyllic vision of higher education.

Application Process

Due: 11:59pm November 19, 2017

Prompt: The effects of admissions on the classroom landscape.

Email: dwyer@cooper.edu

Subject: Application Request

No message

Team

